Jubilee Year: Pilgrims of Hope

Source: Jubilee Resource Pack for Parishes

Jubilee years are a time of newness. They have been celebrated throughout the history of the Church, but their roots go back to the Old Testament, when the Israelites were commanded to celebrate a jubilee every 50 years...

Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop used to say: 'We are but travellers here.' For the 2025 Jubilee Year, Pope Francis invited us to reflect on what it means to be pilgrims of hope: a people who are not only travellers here but walking in joyful anticipation of 'the heavenly goal to which we have been called' (SNC §25).

Pope Francis believed that, in today's world, hope suffers; that too many people have been robbed by cynicism and despair. During Jubilee 2025, he wanted everyone to have 'an intense experience of the love of God that awakens in hearts the sure hope of salvation in Christ' (SNC §6). Only this hope—born from knowing that nothing can separate us from God's love (Rom 8:35-39)—can breathe life back into weary souls.

This hope is not optimism. It is not a forced positivity in the face of hardship and evil. It is a grace from God, a trust in the Lord's promises: that he is good, that he is merciful, and that we are journeying towards the one who says, 'Look, I am making everything new' (Rev 21:5).

For this reason, the most striking part of the logo for this jubilee is the cross: bending towards humanity and forming an anchor, it depicts the cross as something to cling to, especially in rough seas. It is a contemporary 'riff' on an old biblical image. The epistle to the Hebrews describes the hope we have in Christ as 'an anchor of the soul, as sure as it is firm' (6:19).

The cross is not a dead symbol from the past. It is a living sign of God's unfathomable love, and one that carries us together in pilgrimage towards heaven.

Preparations for Daily Prayer

The following daily prayers can be used in their entirety or adapted to meet the needs of the audience. The prayers draw on the Sunday readings, so you may use any of the prayers on any day, although special focus will be given to Feast days, Solemnities, and days of special cultural significance. Feel free to adapt the prayers for special occasions or specific intentions of your own class and school.

The prayers will introduce students to traditional prayer and liturgical practices and responses, as well as a variety of Christian spiritual experiences. Take the opportunity to create a Sacred Space for prayer as you might do in creating a protected garden. This may include a prayer cloth or placemat, a bible, a crucifix, a candle, and flowers. Additional resources (apps, websites, music, videos) will be suggested for those wanting to enrich the prayers or to understand the readings at a deeper level.

The Year of Luke

The Gospel readings for this Year C are taken from the Gospel of Luke and the Church is in The Sunday of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

Daily Prayer will invite those gathered to participate in prayer rituals and respond respectfully in a prayerful context. This week is about setting up for success in a way that those gathered will become comfortable with the structure, the responses, the gestures, the prayers and the symbols. Daily Prayer will be a time when all feel welcomed and valued.

Gather

Remind those present to turn phones to silent, close computer screens, sit quietly and prepare for prayer by becoming aware of God present in the Word, in each other and in ourselves. Take a few slow, deep breaths to help us focus on this moment. There may be special occasions or specific intentions that those gathered may wish to include in today's prayer.

Listen

If possible, the scripture passage is to be read from a lectionary or a bible, which could be put in an honoured place. Readers are to read slowly and clearly when proclaiming the Word of God and treat the text with reverence.

Leader: Let us listen and take part in the story of the Loaves and Fishes from the Gospel of Luke.

Narrator: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the Kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

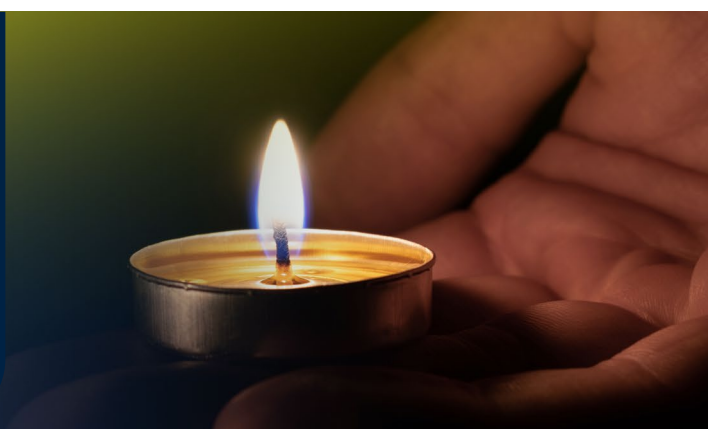

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said,

All: Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.

Narrator: He replied,

Jesus: Give them something to eat yourselves.

Narrator: But they said,

All: We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.

Narrator: For there were about five thousand men.

But he said to his disciples,

Jesus: Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.

Narrator: They did so and made them all sit down.

Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd.

They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

(Pause.)

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Respond

Leader:

In this Gospel story, the people were hungry for food after a long day. Jesus told the disciples: 'Give them something to eat yourselves'.

In our world today, there are many people who are hungry for food. There are also many people we know and meet each day who are hungry for justice, for friendship, for words of encouragement, for a smile or an act of kindness.

With this understanding, reflect on how you will respond to Jesus if he tells you to 'Give them something to eat yourself'.

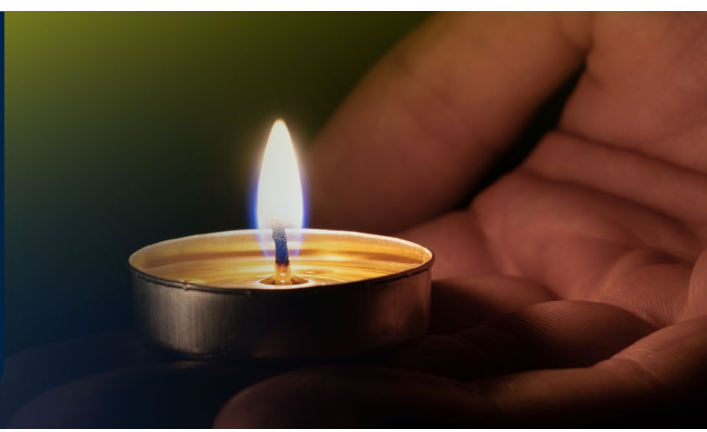

What can you do to respond to someone who is lonely or sad?
(Pause.)

What can you do to respond to someone who is being bullied or excluded?

Listen

If possible, the scripture passage is to be read from a lectionary or a bible, which could be put in an honoured place. Readers are to read slowly and clearly when proclaiming the Word of God and treat the text with reverence.

Leader: Let us listen to the Second Reading from the Sunday celebration.

Reader: A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming to his death.

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Respond

Leader: What did you hear St Paul describing in this reading? What are the bread and Cup? The sacramental real presence of Jesus among us as our spiritual food.

Have you heard the saying "you are what you eat"? What does this mean? How can it be applied to the food Jesus gives us?

Go Forth

Leader: Let us pray a blessing.

May we know always and everywhere the spiritual food that is in our Bread and Cup.

All: Amen.

Leader: And may the blessing of almighty God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, come down on us and remain with us for ever.

All: Amen.

The Gospel of the Lord

All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Respond

Leader: This gospel shows us that the focus of the Eucharist is not just adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, but carrying on the works of Jesus in the world today. We are fed with the body and blood of Jesus so that we can ‘become Jesus’ in our world today. We are to become what we eat.

In this gospel, the disciples want to send the people away to find their own food, but Jesus says: ‘you feed them’. What are some of the hungers that people have? (Peace, safety, food, shelter, love, acceptance, encouragement...)

How can we help meet those needs? Think of one concrete way you can be Jesus to someone this week.

Respond

Leader: This Psalm reminds us that Jesus is a priest forever, chosen by God to lead and care for us. Just like Melchizedek was a special priest long ago, Jesus is with us always, guiding us with love and strength. God's promises never change, He is always faithful.

Reflective Questions:

What does it mean to you that Jesus is always with us?

How can you show God's love to others today?

When have you felt God helping you in a hard time?

Go Forth

Leader: Loving God,

Thank You for sending us Jesus, our forever priest and guide.

Help us to trust in Your promises and remember that You are always with us.

Show us how to share Your love with others through our words and actions.

May we grow to be kind, strong, and faithful, just like Jesus.

Amen.
